About GAP and GAAC

Grand Academic Portal (Gyan-Adhyayan-Parampara) is an initiative started to provide a supplementary and complementary element to the existing formal Higher Education system in India. The founders have collectively envisioned a platform to provide an innovative, free, equal, equitable, collaborative, sustainable, and all-inclusive teaching-learning-pedagogy environment to all the stakeholders of the Higher Education in India. GAP has its presence in more than fifteen states of India with fast-growing popularity in foreign countries also.

Grand Academic Portal (GAP) is a networking group functioning in the field of Higher education in India. It is a platform, which has more than one thousand direct and indirect stakeholders who are the professors, faculty members, researchers, industry patrons, lawyers, and other highly esteemed professionals from India and abroad. GAP is operational in many areas of Higher Education like research, consultancy, the publication of books and journals, project management, resource mobilization, faculty development and training, and mentoring.

Concept Note

The unprecedented crisis in the form of COVID 19, that caught the world unawares, has been a real eye-opener and more so for the teaching fraternity. The time-tested skills of teaching and the tools and mind-set to dispense knowledge, which had been in practice for long, have become questionable in the present scenario. There was a need to address the rising concern about the future of teaching and learning. Thus, this FDP will focus on discussing and putting forth suggestions on teachers' skills which will be required especially for Higher Education teachers during and post-COVID period Besides, it will further sharpen their skills related to issues, policies, and implementation of Teaching-learning, Research, Student Assessment and Remedial measures for weak students along with suggestions for maintaining the Wellbeing of Higher Education stakeholders.
