ABOUT MAHATMA GANDHI LABOUR INSTITUTE

Mahatma Gandhi Labour Institute (MGLI) was established on 15th September 1979 by the Government of Gujarat as an autonomous society under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 to provide for education, training, study, and research in labor and related subjects in furtherance of the policy of the Government to promote harmonious industrial relations and social justice. The institute takes a comprehensive view of Labour and aims at serving the cause of labor including agricultural labor, women and child labor, self-employed, unorganized urban and rural labor besides organized labor in the Industrial, Commercial, Governmental cheap pharmacy without a prescription and service sectors. The principal means of action are Research, Training, Education, and Dissemination of Information through seminars/workshops/colloquium, etc.

ABOUT GAP

Grand Academic Portal (Gyan- Adhyayan- Parampara) is an initiative to provide a supplementary and complementary element to the existing formal higher education system in India. The founders have collectively envisioned a platform to provide innovative, free, equal, equitable, collaborative, sustainable, and all-inclusive teaching-learning-pedagogy environment to all the stakeholders of higher education in India. GAP has its presence in more than thirteen states of India and growing its popularity very fast in foreign countries also. It is a platform, having more than one thousand direct and indirect stakeholders who are the professors, faculty members, researchers, industry patrons, lawyers, and other highly esteemed professionals from India and abroad. GAP is operational in many areas of higher education like research, consultancy, the publication of books and journals, project management, resource mobilization, faculty development and training, and mentoring.
